Our Clothes Define Their Own Characteristics

DISCERNING men are quick to learn that our superior-made clothes define the highest expression of the tailormen's craft. The character is first perceptible in the fit-surprisingly accurate, to the amazement of the man unaccustomed to ready · for · service garments.

Our prices are moderate. consistent with quality. It is demonstrated daily to what degree it lies within our province to provide inexpensive clothes, yet maintain our high standard. Such garments are the ones we depend upon to define our position.

Morris Nathan, Lover of Dead Woman, Recovering, but Still Unable to Go Into Court.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—Following a brief conversation by officers over the long-distance phone, the scene of developments in the famous sult-case mystery has shifted from New York back to Boston.

Doctor Ferey D. McLeod, a reputable physician of the 'Back Bay District,' was arrested to-day on the charge of performing an illegal operation upon Busan Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl, whose remains were found in two suit cases in the waters of Bosto Harbor.

Through the confessions of Louis Crawford and William Howard, the two men arrested in New York vesterday, the authorities received evidence which, in their opinion, warranted the arrest of Doctor McLeod this afternoon.

It is believed that Doctor McLeod was called into the case after the first operation was performed in the Tremont street office, and that he performed a second operation of a desperate nature, in the valuatiempt to save the life of the young woman.
